

EVANSTON SCHOOL DISTRICTS TOP ISSUES AND OPPORTUNITIES TO CONSIDER IN STRATEGIC PLANNING

- Although the overall high school student population has increased slightly over the last several years, the projections through 2013 are for decline of this population.

The Latino enrollment has seen the largest movement with a 30% increase from 1998 to 2004.

- Special education enrollment has risen from 12.27% of total enrollment in 1989 to 15.04% of total enrollment in 2004.
- School District 65's enrollment numbers reflect similar trends to the high school.
- Help support the schools strategic plan goal of a conflict free environment.
