RE: Name Change
Site #310810003
Permit #1984-2-DE/OP

Dear Steve,

This letter is to inform you of a name change regarding this permit number and site ID. For the facility located at 1712 Church Street., Evanston, IL 60201. The prior name was Onyx Waste Services, Midwest, Inc. This was changed on 07/01/2006 to Veolia ES Solid Waste Midwest, Inc., and then changed to Veolia ES Solid Waste Midwest, LLC., On 12/31/2006. This was strictly a name change and not a transfer of ownership. The 39i forms for legal entity and individual are attached.

Sincerely,

Jay Rooney
Regional Vice President

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE 39i FORM
(for a Legal Entity)

This form should be completed for a legal entity such as a municipality, corporation, limited liability company, partnership, estate, or trust. A sole proprietor or individual including owners and officers of a legal entity must complete the 39i Form for a Person.

As part of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency ("Illinois EPA") review of a permit application for a waste storage site, sanitary landfill, waste disposal site, waste transfer station, waste treatment facility, waste incineration, any waste-transportation operation, or clean construction or demolition debris ("CCDD") fill operation, the Illinois EPA conducts an investigation of the prior experience of the owner and operator, including officers and employees of the owner and operator. This 39i Form for a Legal Entity should be completed and submitted by an official representative of the applicant who is considered authorized to sign applications. If there is a separate owner and operator, both owner and operator and their officers must individually complete a 39i form. Those persons authorized to sign applications are identified in 35 IAC 702.126, 807.205(d), 812.104, 830.105. In responding, please identify all the authorized official representatives of the applicant, and their titles in a cover letter. For example, a corporation should identify the president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, and any other person who performs similar policy or decision making functions. Failure to comply with this request will result in a delay in the processing of a permit application, and may result in denial. Furthermore, the Illinois EPA, at its discretion, may request additional information on any employee of the owner or operator or prospective owner or operator.

This form must be submitted anytime a permit application is submitted for a new facility, a renewal of a permit, or a transfer of a permit. This form must also be submitted at any time when a change occurs that would result in a change to information contained in a previously submitted form

General: Provide applicant's FEIN and address as well as the site name and site identification number and permit number(s) of the site. The site name should be the same as the name on the most recent permit or permit application. The applicant is the entity for whom the form is providing 39i certification.

Part I: Information on ownership and/or operation of other waste storage sites, sanitary landfills, waste disposal sites, waste transfer stations, waste treatment facilities, waste-transportation operations, or CCDD fill operations, even if located in other states, must be provided. Provide this information on a separate sheet of paper and attach to the 39i form.

Part II: This part of the application deals with prior conduct in other states as well as in Illinois. If any answers are "yes", the applicant should attach a complete explanation as well as any supporting documentation. At a minimum, this information must include dates, jurisdiction, and reference case numbers. Also, any mitigating factors, such as individual control over the facility and operations, should be included.

Part III. This part deals with pending actions that could impact the application. If final decisions are reached during the certification review it is the applicant's responsibility to provide supplemental information within 30 days.

An original and two copies of this form must be submitted by registered or certified mail to:
